COUNTRY China SUBJECT Association of South China Educational and Cultural Workers Document of Land Country C			Approv	CLASSIFICATION CENTRA			457R003300750010-9	75%
Association of South China Educational and Cultural Workers Coulting in Change in Cha		4 5				A	REPORT NO.
Association of South China Educational and Cultural Workers Coulting in Change in Cha		COUNTRY	China		0 5	2 ng AM '45	DATE DISTR.
PLACE ACQUIRED DATE OF IN THIS IS UN CONTROL TO SOUTH T		SUBJECT		orkers	na Education			3
THIS IS UNE department to the state of the	1			NO CHA	MOE in Class.
THIS IS UN This appropriate the contract of t					[] (A)			25X 25X
1. A group of intellectuals in Hong Kong have formed the Association of South China Educational and Cultural Workers (单前数文化工作局类。), which is said to be under Communist direction. They are attempting to recruit members by sending letters to college and high school teachers advising them to remain at their posts and preserve the property of educational institutions pending the arrival of the Liberation Army. The Association is loosely organized but its leadership consists of a tightly-knit group, some of whom are Communist Party members. 2. The Association is prepared to take over Sun Yat-sen University and other institutions when the Communists take Canton. They boast of this as an inducement to attract new members, for they state that membership in the Association will guarantee future employment. HSU Hsi-ling (光光), professor of education in the Provincial Institute of Arts, Science, Law and Business (音云水), who is a member of the Association. TSENG attempted to enlist HSU's support, but the latter refused on the grounds that if he jeined the group he would be in trouble with the Canton police upon his return there.		· · ·		mil w			REPORT NO.
1. A group of intellectuals in Hong Kong have formed the Association of South China Educational and Cultural Workers (单前数文化工作局类。), which is said to be under Communist direction. They are attempting to recruit members by sending letters to college and high school teachers advising them to remain at their posts and preserve the property of educational institutions pending the arrival of the Liberation Army. The Association is loosely organized but its leadership consists of a tightly-knit group, some of whom are Communist Party members. 2. The Association is prepared to take over Sun Yat-sen University and other institutions when the Communists take Canton. They boast of this as an inducement to attract new members, for they state that membership in the Association will guarantee future employment. HSU Hsi-ling (光光), professor of education in the Provincial Institute of Arts, Science, Law and Business (音云水), who is a member of the Association. TSENG attempted to enlist HSU's support, but the latter refused on the grounds that if he jeined the group he would be in trouble with the Canton police upon his return there.
1. A group of intellectuals in Hong Kong have formed the Association of South China Educational and Cultural Workers (華南教育文化工作局足會), which is said to be under Communist direction. They are attempting to recruit members by sending letters to college and high school teachers advising them to remain at their posts and preserve the property of educational institutions pending the arrival of the Liberation Army. The Association is loosely organized but its leadership consists of a tightly-knit group, some of whom are Communist Farty members. 2. The Association is prepared to take over Sun Yat-sen University and other institutions when the Communists take Canton. They boast of this as an inducement to attract new members, for they state that membership in the Association will guarantee future employment. HSU Hsi-ling (徐元), professor of education in the Provincial Institute of Arts, Science, Law and Business (常文文理、高文理、高文理、高文理、高文理、高文理、高文理、高文理、高文理、高文理、	1	U.S.C., 31 AND OF ITS CONTENTS	STATES WITHIN THE MEAN 82. AS AMENDED. ITS TR S IN ANY MANNER TO AN	NING OF THE ESPIONAGE AC ANSMISSION OR THE REVELA UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS	T 50	THIS IS U	Archivist of the line institutions when the Communists take Canton. They boast of this as an inducement to attract new members, for they state that membership in the Association will guarantee future employment. HSU Hsi-ling (作品), professor of education in the Provincial Institute of Arts, Science, Law and Business (首立文理法意) came to Hong Kong and saw TSENG Ch'ao-sen (曾母本), who is a member of the Association. TSENG attempted to enlist HSU's support, but the latter refused on the grounds that if he joined the group he would be in trouble with the Canton police upon his return there.		1.	which is so recruit men vising them institution loosely or a	ational and Cu aid to be undenbers by sendinto to remain at as pending the canized but it	r Communist ng letters to their posts arrival of s leadership	rs (華南孝 direction. o college a and preser the Liberat	文育文化工作周志會 They are attempting that the property of education army. The Association Army.), s ad- scational ation is
CLASSIFICATIO		2.	institution inducement Association professor of and Busines Ch'ao-sen (to enlist H jöined the	ns when the Co to attract ne will guarant of education i ss (省立文理 曾昭蘇), SU's support, group he woul	mmunists take w members, for ee future em n the Provine 法 意 學 院 who is a member but the late	e Canton. or they sta ployment. cial Instit) came ber of the ter refused	They boast of this as the that membership in HSU Hsi-ling (A Market of Arts, Science, to Hong Kong and saw Association. TSENG at on the grounds that i	an the), Law TSENG tempted f he
CLASSIFICATION			· ·
CLASSIFICATION
CLASSIFICATION
CLASSIFICATION
CLASSIFICATION
CLASSIFICATION	,
マー・マー・マー・マー・マー・マー・マー・マー・マー・マー・マー・マー・マー・マ	,	:						:

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt